

The House That Jack Built

PART I

JACK has his Jill. Jill has her Jack. Both are happy. Jack because he has his Jill; Jill because she has Jack and a HOME—at least a PROMISE of one. But it's easier to get a Jack or a Jill than to get a HOME. At least it was for this Jack and this Jill, because they are both VERY handsome and VERY good-natured.

And as they were very FOND of each other, the HOME idea was sidetracked and the loving pair boarded the matrimonial express for a trip to PARADISE and back to —.

A BOARDING house where life is one GLAD SONG—for a time.

Moral (or is it): If you can't be married and have a home get married anyway.

It's Easy to Get a Home!

PARENTS WANT BOY SENTENCED TO JAIL

Elmer Goff, Self Confessed Burglar, Bound Over on Father's Charge.

Elmer Goff, 16 years old, is in the county jail here, on a complaint sworn to by his father, and with the consent of his mother.

The case came up in Justice Watson's court Friday afternoon. The boy declared to the court that he had been stealing for the past five years, and that the one hope of his life was to become a burglar—a real knight of the dark lantern and the jimmy.

W. H. Goff, father of the lad, runs a small candy store on North Oregon street. This his son has twice broken into and robbed.

Despairing of success in preventing the boy from leading the life of a criminal, his father and mother agreed that the house of correction offered the only remedy. Hence the charge of burglary, on which the boy was arrested and held to the grand jury. He was placed in jail in default of $500 bond.

HELD ON THEFT CHARGE.

Isabel Flores is in the county jail docked on a charge of theft under $50. The arrest was made by deputy sheriff Juan Franco.

PRELIMINARY HEARING.

C. L. Wright, alias Lang, charged with forgery, will be given a preliminary hearing in Justice McIntosh's court, next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The hearing was to have been held Saturday morning, but owing to the inability of some of the complaining witnesses to be present, the trial was postponed.

Wright came to El Paso two or three weeks ago and engaged himself to the organizers of a local life insurance company. Through his ability to talk and his prepossessing appearance he succeeded in securing $75 in cash on two drafts on Waco banks. He is charged. His arrest promptly followed.

PAY DAY AT CITY HALL.

Saturday, to use the customary expression, the ghost walked for the employees of the city of El Paso. The little slips of paper representing the reward of a month's work wrought wonders in putting the city hall "bunch" in an exceptionally good humor.
